Lincoln County, Oklahoma

PC-23-_____
Case No. OSBI2023-185

FILED

FEB 17 2023

CINDY KIRBY, COURT CLERK
LINCOLN COUNTY, OKLAHOMA

GRIFFITH, COLLIN RILEY
D.O.B. 3/16/2007

AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned upon oath deposes and states as follows, to-wit:

Affiant has probable cause to believe the Defendant committed the following: COUNT 1: FIRST DEGREE MURDER ~ a FELONY (Title 21 O.S. §701.7), which occurred in Lincoln County, Oklahoma on February 14th 2023.

Your Affiant is a Special Agent with the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation assigned to the investigative division.

On February 14, 2023, Sheriff Charlie Dougherty of Lincoln County Sheriff's Office in Lincoln County, Oklahoma requested full OSBI investigative assistance on a homicide that occurred at 354860 E. 900 Stroud, OK 74079, Lincoln County, Oklahoma.

On February 14, 2023 at approximately 1300 hours, Lincoln County dispatch received a 911 call from the above mentioned defendant reporting that he had shot his father Charles Robert Griffith. The defendant stated there had been an argument and Charles had pulled a knife on him and chased him through the house. The defendant stated he had been cornered in the bedroom by his father where he picked up a gun and shot Charles twice.

While investigating the crime scene there were inconsistencies with the evidence on the scene and the story initially given to dispatch by the defendant. Your affiant went to the sheriff department to interview the defendant on the discrepancies at the scene. At that time the defendant invoked his fifth-amendment right to council.

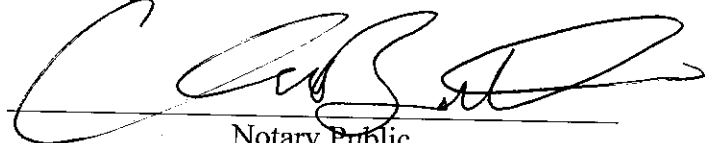

Charles was shot once in the chest and once in the head. He was pronounced dead on February 14, 2023.

Based on this Affidavit and any attachments thereto; your Affiant prays that this honorable Court issues a finding that there is probable cause for arrest.
