NOTICE
(Prison Imposed)

The Court hereby notifies the Defendant as follows:

Post-Release Control.

After you are released from prison, you (~~x~~will, may) have a period of post-release control for 5 years following your release from prison. If you violate post-release control sanctions imposed upon you, any one or more of the following may result:

- (1) The Parole Board may impose a more restrictive post-release control sanction upon you; and
- (2) The Parole Board may increase the duration of the post-release control subject to a specified maximum; and
- (3) The more restrictive sanction that the Parole Board may impose may consist of a prison term, provided that the prison term cannot exceed nine months and the maximum cumulative prison term so imposed for all violations during the period of post-release control cannot exceed one-half of the definite prison term that is the stated prison term originally imposed upon you or, with respect to a non-life felony indefinite prison term, one-half of the minimum prison term included as part of the stated non-life felony indefinite prison term originally imposed on you; and
- (4) If the violation of the sanction is a felony, you may be prosecuted for the felony and, in addition to any sentence it imposes on you for the new felony, the Court may impose a prison term, subject to a specified maximum, for the violation.

I hereby certify that the Court read to me, and gave me in writing, the notice set forth herein.
